Introduction

This directory is designed to identify and locate the Public Health service providers to all communities, First Nations and Hutterite colonies in Manitoba. As their boundaries may differ, this listing does not apply to other community health services, such as Continuing Care, health inspectors, etc.

The directory is compiled and maintained by the Public Health Branch of Manitoba Health, with information and support provided by the Regional Health Authorities. Regional Health Authority liaisons send changes to the directory as they occur to the Public Health Branch.

This edition of the Public Health Nursing Offices Rural Directory is current as of: June 1, 2001

To report changes, please e-mail Marie Myndzak: mmyndzak@gov.mb.ca

General Guidelines

1. First Nations and Hutterite colonies are included in both the Rural Public Health Directory and their respective indices.
2. Full nursing office contact information can be found in the Regional Health Authorities, rural nursing offices, federal nursing stations, or provincial nursing station lists.

- First Nations and Indian Reserves are identified by the word "Band" attached to the end of the band's name. For instance, Chemahawin Band.
- Hutterite colonies are identified by the word "Colony" attached to the end of the community's name.
